

Henry's Lake Foundation
Fundraising and Privacy Policy

General:

Henry's Lake Foundation (HLF) respects the interests and intentions of its membership and observes professional fundraising practices. HLF is organized as a tax-exempt charity and is in compliance with both the spirit and the letter of all local, state and federal laws governing charitable solicitations.

The organization ensures that contributions are used in accordance with the member/donors' intentions.

Promotional and fundraising materials including the website, social media mentions, and printed materials, will be accurate and truthful, and will identify the organization, its mission, and the intended use of funds solicited.

Privacy:

HLF will not gather, file, or maintain personal identity information such as credit card number or bank account number. HLF will maintain contact information (address, phone, email) solely to communicate with HLF members/donors. Any party that willingly submits their contact information to HLF agrees to be contacted by the foundation for informational purposes. HLF will remove any party from our database upon request. HLF will never share, sell, or exchange anyone's information for third party fundraising or marketing purposes. All names maintained in the HLF database will be strictly confidential and will not be listed or published without permission.
